

How to become a Driving Instructor

Driving Instructor's Permit Application

DESCRIPTION:

All driving instructors are required to register. To obtain an instructor's certificate, you are required to undergo a criminal record check, obtain a medical certificate and pass an instructor's test.

INSTRUCTIONS:

To apply for an instructor's certificate, you need to complete form R1 at a driving licence testing centre.

The application must state which class(es) of motor vehicles you wish to register as an instructor for and must be accompanied by the appropriate fee.

If the application is accepted, you are required to take a test at the driving licence testing centre to get a report on your competence to act as an instructor.

If you are successful, you will be issued with an authorisation, which you then need to submit along with two photographs and the required registration fee. You will then be issued with a registration certificate.
